

Community Fete - A fun, action-packed, family afternoon

The Eaglesfield Park Neighbourhood Watch Scheme is hosting its third, free annual Community Fete on Saturday 12 June in Eaglesfield Park, from 1:30 to 4:30pm.

The event focuses on fostering community spirit and promotes the benefits of Neighbourhood Watch. It also provides a great way for local volunteer groups, businesses and service providers to showcase their work.

Some of the activities and events include:

- Meet 'Rufus' the harris hawk from CBBC Animals At Work and other working birds of prey
- Play 'beat the goalie' with the Charlton Athletic FC
- Take part in mini tennis with the Shooters Hill Lawn Tennis Club
- See the Police Air Support and meet the mounted team and traffic division. Plus Cadets and Met Specials and the Shooters Hill Safer Neighbourhood Police team
- Listen to the Corps of Drums 97 Cadet Battery (Woolwich)
- Children can take part in a 'Nature Trail' and have their face painted
- Guided tours of the trees in the park will be hosted by Arboriculturalist Joe Woodcock.

Your chance to enter a raffle to win prizes including four tickets to see Bon Jovi in the VIP suite at the O2. Yummy home-made cakes and refreshments will be on sale, plus bric-a-brac.

The Eaglesfield Park Neighbourhood Watch Scheme and its supporters hopes to see you there!
